«Pensions guide» special

Facts and figures on the ever-present issue of pensions in the «Handelszeitung» special published on 5 October 2023

Characteristics

The «pension guide» special will be published on 5 October 2023 as part of the series of specials by the «HZ Insurance» editorial team. Demographic developments pose enormous challenges for pension provision. How is the pay-as-you-go OASI expected to cope when fewer and fewer workers are funding the provision of more and more pensioners? How can the redistribution in the funded occupational pension provision be stopped? How important are private pensions or how important may they be in the future? Readers can discover the answers to these burning questions in the special supplement.

Book your ad now and advertise your pension solutions in this special. Our readership has high purchasing potential as well as the means to afford pension provision, and is interested in your offers!

In addition to the print edition, we also offer digital solutions with special dossiers on the subject at handelszeitung.ch/specials. We will be happy to advise you.
